Situated in one of Melbourne's heritage building at the top end of Russell Street, this bright apartment offers a tranquil lifestyle with the city buzz and spectacular views of the city skyline. This property boasts a modern kitchen with SMEG appliances and ample storage, European laundry cupboard, and a bedroom with built-in robes and an ensuite. The open living and dining area leads out to a private balcony. Residents can enjoy the use of resort style facilities including indoor pool, sauna, spa, fully equipped gym and concierge service. The property is just a short walk to the Queen Victoria Market, major city gardens and popular eateries in Carlton, with Melbourne's public transport system at its doorstep.
