Perfectly positioned in a popular location, this stunning home boasts character and charm, as well as upgrades and functionality! • Three internal bedrooms, two with built in robes of generous size. Fourth bedroom is an option in the outdoor bungalow in off the rear deck • A great living space, with an abundance of natural light • Kitchen and meals are with gas cooking, integrated dishwasher and plenty of bench space and storage • Family bathroom with shower over bath, and plenty of storage in the under bench vanity • Large deck area perfect for spending time and entertaining in the warmer months. Complimented by a large enclosed yard, with plenty of garden beds for self sufficiency and an additional storage shed, this beautiful yard is great for the green thumb or children ready to explore • The bungalow is generous in size and has a split system for year round comfort. Perfect as a teens retreat, kids play area, or even a study the opportunities are endless! • Updated central heating unit with zone control • Under cover carport comfortably accommodating two cars off street • Only a short 5 minute drive, or even a short stroll into the city centre, this home has everything within a stones throw! A great opportunity to experience the charm of a period home, with all the added extras!
