An apartment that promises both waterside beauty and cityside action, that's the perfect lifestyle combination at 883 Collins St. The top end of Melbourne's prestigious 'Paris' style Collins St leads you to this waterside haven with Yarra River frontage, surrounded by the spectacular Bolte Bridge, New Quay Marina and Docklands Harbour. When you're done with cruising the local bars, cafes, theatres and shops, you can retreat to this 2-bedroom 2-bathroom pad - rich in light, with balcony connection from both the living room and bedroom. Two bathrooms, a stylish galley kitchen, and plenty of central living space also offers potential for two tenants, catering to the demand for student rental close to universities including RMIT and Melbourne University and the State Library. The address gives you access to the building's gym, library, function room, heated indoor pool and 1 secure car space, and the freedom to walk to city attractions including Marvel Stadium, Crown Casino, Queen Victoria market and Docklands eateries for the ultimate in luxury waterfront living.
