Embracing an unmistakably bold presence in the realm of sophisticated urban living, this spacious and north-facing three-bedroom apartment, skillfully designed by Jackson Clement Burrows, offers an exquisite backdrop of Melbourne's city skyline. Nestled securely on the third floor of a boutique building in the vibrant heart of Prahran East Village, this bespoke residence stands out for its unwavering commitment to quality. Impressively generous in size and bathed in the gentle northern sunlight, the open-plan dining and living area features elegant Oak flooring and a cleverly concealed TV station, all complemented by a gourmet kitchen adorned with striking stone countertops and top-of-the-line Miele appliances. Effortlessly, this space extends to a sunlit, north-facing terrace where the cityscape takes center stage, inviting entertainers to revel in the view. The primary bedroom exudes a rare level of opulence with dimensions reminiscent of a high-end hotel suite, boasting a walk-in robe, a five-star ensuite, and its very own terrace offering further city vistas, along with glimpses of Port Phillip Bay. Meanwhile, the additional bedrooms provide ample built-in wardrobe space and easy access to the central bathroom. Additionally, there are two secure basement parking spaces, a capacious storage unit, video entry, a fob-activated elevator, and reverse cycle heating and air conditioning. Positioned perfectly to relish the best of High Street Armadale and the Chapel Street precinct, this diverse urban location offers a delightful local cafe scene, an array of dining options, bars, and convenient tram access to the city.
