Designed to deliver the perfect work life balance, is this distinctive North facing apartment, with equal parts of comfort, style and functionality, that offers everything you need on your doorstep to make apartment life a pleasure. A very practical layout offers a natural flow outdoors to the oversized under cover North facing balcony from the light filled open plan living room, that is overseen by the expertly finished kitchen with SMEG appliances. The designer style bathroom suites and European laundry are also very thoughtfully planned and so is the exceptional storage options, with generous mirrored robes, linen cupboard, pantry and on level separate storage cage close to your front door. This eye-catching building is an impressive architectural achievement, which runs through to a sleek interior with premium fittings and finishes that are sophisticated but also timeless with easy underground parking, which is NOT a stacker. You'll find yourself immersed in this evolving position, where literally you have at your door Woolworths Metro Supermarket, tram and laidback bustling cafes. When Quality, Style & Location Matters...
