With city views, two levels of light-filled living and soaring ceiling heights, this spacious two bedroom two bathroom apartment with two car spaces has luxury and accessibility at its heart. Part of the historic Pran Central Apartments, this place soars over the hustle and bustle of one of Melbourne's most celebrated locales as an oasis of connectivity, with the feel of a stylish Manhattan penthouse. It's curved design feels as good on the inside as it looks on the outside with windows that soar from floor-to-ceiling, creating the feel of a glass house in the sky, complete with custom blackout curtains for when you want to forget about the world. An expansive northeast-facing open-plan living and dining zone is chic and spacious, complete with a sleek kitchen with a central island, a perfect spot for your 5-star inner chef to emerge. With a bedroom accompanied by a bathroom on each floor, space is easy to find. And, with perhaps one of Melbourne's best views, the second floor mezzanine study is the perfect place to spend an afternoon with the family or in peaceful solitude. Complete with European laundry, split system heating and air conditioning, lift access and a security entrance, this haven offers unparalleled connectivity and unbelievable privacy. Positioned on the corner of Chapel Street and Commercial Road, with direct access to Pran Central via the lift, the location places you at the most iconic cross section in the city on the doorstep of hundreds of cafes, restaurants and shops alongside the iconic Prahran Market and a bevy of transport options.
