This home oozes charm and is just one street back from the beachfront. If you and your family aren't down exploring the beach, you'll be wanting to sit back and relax on the beautiful undercover deck. This entertainment area will be your favorite spot day and night catching the lovely sea breezes. Offering three spacious bedrooms, beautiful high ceilings, and polished timber floors throughout the living areas, you're sure to fall in love with the character of this home. This home offers so much for all the family from the large yard, the extra storage areas downstairs to the great central location to all amenities - including bus stop. There's even plenty of room to park your tinny or trailer. Use the virtual tour link to "walk through" this home and submit your application NOW as homes like this don't come on the rental market often enough. You are encouraged to submit an application as shortlisted applicants will be offered a private viewing.
