Overlooking the lush greenery of Plenty Gorge Park, this generously proportioned home delivers a remarkable family lifestyle in a dream location. Inside, the spacious lounge and dining room feature decorative columns and gleaming porcelain tiles, flowing through to an open plan family room and casual meals zone with parquet floors. Taking centre stage, the showpiece kitchen flaunts eye-catching pendant lights over the stone breakfast bar, quality appliances and a walk-in pantry. On this level, there is a guest bedroom with a walk-in robe and private ensuite - ideal for guests, in-laws or adult children. A sweeping staircase invites you upstairs, where you will find a comfortable retreat with a balcony, and the private master suite featuring a walk-in robe and a luxurious ensuite with a double shower and dual stone-topped vanity. Three additional robed bedrooms share a stylish main bathroom, whilst outdoors, the north-facing backyard features a semi-covered alfresco deck and plenty of room for family activities. Finishing touches include ducted heating, evaporative cooling, split system air conditioning and a double auto garage. Stroll through the park to Uni Hills Factory Outlets, and moments from RMIT Bundoora, zoned for Plenty Parklands Primary School and Greensborough College, and close to Parade College, M80 Ring Road, bus and tram services, Greensborough Bypass and Shopping Plaza.
