$75,000

This 216sqm block is in the action zone!!! it's close to the school, medical centre, shops and the beach/river. The seller has included a set of plans for a 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom Steel framed home that are Shire of Northampton approved and just need a building permit, this has cost them $18,500. With a mix of units surrounding you could slip into easy living mode with your own lock and leave or what a great investment for the future. If you are interested in further details then contact me and I can send through all of the information.
