On offer is 1012 m2 corner allotment set back a short walk from the river reserve in Moorook. The property comprises a free-standing carport, a lockable stone and iron shed with a 1920's Bungalow style home. The house is in poor condition with the southern side of the house showing extensive cracking. The foundation of the house has been undermined by a burst water line. The house could be demolished providing the new owner with a spacious allotment to build the perfect holiday or permanent home.
