Phone Enquiry ID: 225089 If you are looking for an ideal home to entertain friends and family in quiet surrounds, then your search has ended. This charming home has a spacious timber deck that faces north east and flows out from the kitchen and large master bedroom. Natural light filters through the home, providing an ideal aspect and a sensational setting for friends and family to gather. Inside, the home has been renovated to provide a modern touch. The exterior has been updated and restored to keep the charm of the original residence. Well positioned on this 506m² block, there is ample room in the backyard to play, add a pool or granny flat, and enjoy the garden. Fully fenced, it's ideal for pets. Underneath the home there is a single garage and loads of work space/storage. When relaxing on the back deck, with a tree-lined vista, you'll feel like you are miles away from the hustle and bustle - yet you are just minutes away from the heart of Southport. The popular Ferry Road Market is just a short drive away, as are private and state schools, child care facilities and major shopping centres. Public transport, dog-friendly parks and bushland walks are also in close proximity. Additional features: * Timber floors * Fully tiled renovated bathroom * Large master bedroom with plenty of storage * Built-ins in bedrooms 2 and 3 * Large back deck * Separate toilet * New zinc roof * Fully fenced back yard * Walk to parks with swings * Close to everything that Southport offers. Act now to secure this home in a quiet and in-demand neighbourhood.
