A highly sought Frankston South position and light-filled proportions introduce this blissful three-bedroom residence, where a northern orientation and treetop vistas enlighten cherished interiors. Blending original character with subtle updates, hardwood timber floors carry easy family living across a position opposite Sycamore Reserve. Nurtured over the years by growing families, a sun-drenched layout welcomes zoning of accommodation and entertaining space to offer a functional floorplan no matter the life stage. Comprising a front-facing balcony, interior entertaining spans interconnected living and dining rooms, and a practical kitchen design complete with freestanding 900mm cooker and rear garden aspects. Each with generous proportions and built-in robes, the three-bedroom accommodation layout does its duty alongside a family bathroom, separate toilet and dedicated laundry. A long rear driveway spans from front to back where a double brick garage sits amongst easy-care gardens. With space to reimagine across the 671sqm (approx) allotment, gas ducted heating and a FHSZ address, this inspiring foundation for family living sits only moments from Frankston's major retail hub, easy freeway access and choice in local schools.
