This large family home is flooded with natural light through the north facing living areas and yard. The open plan design allows easy flow and transition between dining and lounge rooms making you feel relaxed and at home. Featuring four bedrooms, master with ensuite and walk in robe, a formal lounge area and the large kitchen/dining/living room. The kitchen provides an easy space to prepare meals with gas cooking, dishwasher and a large pantry. The family bathroom is located between the two rear bedrooms, with a bath and separate shower, separate toilet. The laundry room is fitted with bench space, cupboards and a glass sliding door out to the clothes line. The decor provides for light, neutral colours throughout, and the home sits on a level block with an outdoor undercover dining area and easy care garden. Other features include central heating, a split system air conditioner in the main living zone and a double remote garage with a roller door through to the rear yard. Surrounded by new homes and located in a popular area within a nice stroll to Gateway Plaza and primary and secondary schools and a very short drive to Deakin University to the east and the CBD to the west.
