

31 Tregear St, Moonah, TAS, 7009

Sold House

Thursday, 6 July 2023

31 Tregear St, Moonah, TAS, 7009

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Jake Towns

Stuart Benson

move on in

Set only minutes from the conveniences of popular Moonah sits this fantastic three bedroom family home that boasts plenty of light, space and privacy. Offering a terrific opportunity to investors, first home owners or growing families – this property won't last long!

- Great first home, family home or investment property
- Generous proportions throughout
- Designated living zone with cozy flame effect fire
- Functional and well designed kitchen with breakfast bar
- Beautiful timber floors
- Three good sized bedrooms, all with built in robes
- Central bathroom with shower, bath and separate toilet
- Freshly painted throughout
- Private and level backyard with low maintenance landscaping
- Fantastic timber deck, perfect for entertaining
- Within walking distance to the heart of Moonah
- Close to schools, shops, cafes and bus routes
- Less than 10 minutes to Hobart CBD

Year Built: 1948

Construction: Weatherboard

Roof: Tile

Annual Council Rates: $1500 approximately

Annual Tas Water Rates: $1200approximately

Get to know Moonah

The northern suburb of Moonah is a short 10-minute drive from the Hobart CBD. This buzzing suburb offers stores for everyday needs to occasional purchases with amenities close to your doorstep. The area is primarily flat, with the hills and mountains lining the horizon and is a popular area for people looking for their first home or to purchase an investment property.