Surrounded by 20 acres of native bushland, Glenaeon has a real feeling of space, yet a wide range of shops and services are within three kilometres. Major shopping centres and healthcare services, as well as Sydney's famous northern beaches, are nearby. There's a bus stop near the village gates, with services running to the city, Chatswood, and Frenchs Forest (connecting to Manly/Dee Why). Bathed in natural sunlight and modern interiors, this one-bedroom plus study townhouse is beautifully renovated with new timber flooring and fresh new paint. Offering a practical layout, the open plan living and dining space flows out to a fully fenced wrap-around courtyard with a covered terrace, perfect for relaxation or entertaining family and friends. Delight in the modern kitchen complete with stone bench tops, brand-new appliances, ample cupboard space, and a walk-in pantry. With air conditioning, an internal laundry, and a large lockup garage offering additional storage space, this home will be sure to impress. Within easy walking distance to the community facilities, feel safe and secure in your own surroundings and remain connected to a vibrant and welcoming over 55's community. To find out more about Glenaeon and the homes we currently have available, please call 1800 550 550 to arrange a personal appointment. *Photographs are for illustrative purposes.
