Tucked around on Graham Road, this sensational two bedroom plus study two bathroom security apartment puts you high above the village in a private penthouse level escape of your own. Well set back in the block and behind double glazing, this super quiet hideaway reveals a genuine entry hall leading into the relaxed open plan living and dining area, a dynamic kitchen with Bosch appliances, an impressive main bedroom with walk in robe, study nook and modish ensuite, a bright second bedroom with mirrored built in robes, a generous study, a sparkling bathroom and a European laundry. The covered alfresco balcony complements its distant views with the drawcard of dazzling afternoon sunshine. In this high class development with its storage cages at apartment level, this premier apartment is equipped with ducted heating/air conditioning, video intercom and lift access to secure undercover parking. Feel comforted by the fact you've got everything you need just footsteps away including Woolworths supermarket, the city train, a choice of cafes, diverse eateries, the local library and buses to Southland and beyond.
