What this studio apartment offers you is a delightful combination of modern amenities amongst natural surroundings, with easy access to the cultural offerings and amenities of Melbourne. The studio includes a kitchen and new carpets, which are sure to make the space feel fresh and welcoming, and a central bathroom with shower and sink. The location on the edge of the city and near parkland provides a peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle of living right in the middle of the CBD, while still offering easy access to all the city has to offer. The proximity to famous eateries and cultural landmarks like the Royal Exhibition Building and Carlton Gardens is a plus. Overall, this studio apartment would be an excellent choice for anyone looking for a comfortable and convenient living space in Melbourne, or a city escape for country people, and an ideal situation for family members during University years. From all of us at Hudson Bond, we wish you every success in your search for your home. If you would like more detail on this home or to chat about one of the many other properties, we have available please call or email us today.
