Flooded with natural light and views that only a select few can enjoy. A stunning apartment that is simply a must see. A shared balcony with a view of the city that will never get old. A private balcony showcasing North Easterly views of the outer edges of Brunswick East and Fitzroy North and privacy away from the hustle and bustle of the modern world. This sanctuary is a place in which you can simply relax and let the stress of the day melt away. Featuring a large open plan living and kitchen area with euro laundry. The flexible layout allows for any configuration of living you can imagine. A generous master bedroom, built in robes and modern bathroom will give you all the conveniences you need. With a quiet study nook for the avid reader or workaholic looking out to the private balcony where your weekends will be spent enjoying fresh air and the atmosphere that is sought after with inner City living. It will be easy for you to immerse yourself in all that this location has to offer. Simply leave the car at home as it's only a short tram ride into the CBD. With Lygon Street and Sydney Road in your immediate vicinity, shopping, dining or a quick coffee break is all at a moment's notice. If you need somewhere to stretch your legs or ride your bike just head down to Park Street and Merri Creek trails which connect you through to all the local suburbs and through to the city.
