315 Ellendale Road is a property that offers a comfortable and spacious living experience. The house includes two bedrooms and one bathroom, making it a perfect fit for a small family or a couple looking for a peaceful retreat. The property also boasts a covered barbeque area, which is perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying a relaxing evening with family and friends. One of the best features of this property is its stunning location. Set on four paddocks on a 7647m² block, this property offers breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside and provides ample space for outdoor activities. Additionally, there is a shop on the property that could be an ideal teenager retreat, offering a private space for young adults to relax and unwind. Overall, 315 Ellendale Road is a beautiful property that offers both comfort and space in a stunning location. Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or a place to entertain guests and family, this property has something for everyone.
