Located in within the highly coveted South East Deniliquin locale, this family home offers a comfortable and stylish living space whilst conveniently located within walking distance to primary and secondary schooling. Step inside to discover a meticulously designed layout boasting three generously proportioned bedrooms adorned with built-in robes, with the opulent master suite featuring a spacious walk-in robe and a luxurious ensuite bathroom. Entertaining is a delight in the bright and airy lounge area, where natural light floods the space and for added relaxation and versatility, a secondary lounge room awaits at the rear, overlooking the secure backyard. Climate control throughout the home is effortlessly managed throughout the seasons, courtesy of the property's array of amenities, including split-system air conditioning, ducted evaporative cooling, and a cozy slow combustion wood fire. Outside, the meticulously landscaped grounds are effortlessly maintained with the inclusion of an inground automatic sprinkler system and completing this expansive secure yard is a powered shed with roller door accessed through the carport and entertaining area.
