Modern and stylish, this architect designed top-floor two bedroom apartment with a knock-out entertaining terrace is privy to memorable sweeping views across Prahran in one of Melbourne's most cosmopolitan setting. Light-filled and spacious, the interiors are positioned to take in the aspect across Prahran Square, iconic buildings and beyond for impressive impact. An open plan living and dining wing features floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors retracting to a sensational entertaining terrace perfect for weekends with friends or evening drinks backdropped by twinkling lights. The kitchen is fitted to perform with stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances including a Bosch dishwasher drawer and ample storage. The generous main bedroom is well-appointed with mirrored built-in robes and study nook, while the second double bedroom with mirrored robes opens to the terrace for a light and airy feel. Other features include a spacious central bathroom, European laundry, reverse-cycle heating and air conditioning, video intercom system, lift access, secure parking and storage cage. Step out your front door and you are in the heart of the Chapel Street precinct with Prahran Market and Greville Street at either end of the street, cafes and bars in every direction, Prahran Square, The Alfred Hospital and all your daily shopping needs minutes' walk away, a choice of tram routes nearby and the CBD only a short train ride away.
