

32 Celia Street, Glen Iris, Vic 3146

Sold House

Wednesday, 6 September 2023

32 Celia Street, Glen Iris, Vic 3146

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

May Zhu
0398152999

Paul Richards
0398152999

Contact agent

Secure your own leafy slice of this established neighbourhood with this solidly appealing home on a large corner block of premium land. Nestled amongst almost 780sqm, there are beautiful garden outlooks from every aspect of the single level layout which comprises a huge living and dining zone flowing into a quality granite kitchen boasting Miele and Asko appliances, a breakfast bar and walk-in pantry. Out from here, the alfresco deck is oriented to soak up the northern sunshine providing a beautiful space to relax outdoors looking out to the glorious greenery. A versatile sitting room or study space gives access through to two huge bedrooms one boasting a spa ensuite, the other not only offering a private bathroom but also an expansive dressing room which could be modified to become a 4th bedroom/nursery if desired. A further bedroom is an added highlight serviced by a contemporary bathroom nearby complete with a sauna, while rounding off the package are laundry facilities, hydronic heating and ducted cooling plus video intercom and gated carport/driveway parking. Just 600m to Burwood station and within easy reach of cafes & shops on both High Street & Toorak Road, this tranquil pocket is close to bike & walking trails as well as quality schooling and the Monash Freeway.