Ideally located in the popular suburb of Glenorchy is this much-loved family home sitting on a 668sqm block with stunning views. Built in 1964 this property will attract a lot of attention. Walking from the carport you have a large patio area allowing for privacy to the side entrance which leads through to the open plan kitchen/dining and living areas. Windows provide plenty of natural light while the kitchen provides loads of bench space and plenty of storage. All three bedrooms have built-in wardrobes. The bathroom has the convenience of both bath and a separate shower. Sliding doors from both the living and dining areas lead to an undercover balcony with breath taking views that must be seen to be believed. Downstairs you will find a large rumpus room combining the laundry as well, outside leads to the garage/workshop and a garden shed as well, the backyard is fenced and secure making it a safe place for pets and children or maybe just a great area for the keen gardener. Glenorchy is a very sought-after suburb with everything you need within walking distance including shopping centres, medical services, cafes, eateries, schools and much more.
