On a quiet street, with so much close by, you'll be pleased to call 32 Foster Road, Flinders home. Step inside and note the flowing modern floorplan, bright and white, with defined dining area, large kitchen with plenty of storage, and a spacious living area opening onto the essential covered alfresco and courtyard, perfect for year round entertaining! Upstairs, a clever study nook/second living space leads to the well sized master, complete with ensuite and massive built in wardrobe. Bedrooms two and three enjoy a sunny northerly aspect, built in robes, and close proximity to the family bathroom, complete with bathtub to soak away the stresses of the working week! There is plenty of storage in the form of a linen press, clever under stair storage/IT Hub, a well sized laundry (with third WC) and an external gated storage area. Leave the car in the 3.6 x 6m lockup garage or on the two offstreet parking spaces and catch the nearby bus or train on your next adventure, with Shellharbour Junction station a short 250m (approx) level walk away. Alternatively, parklands and cycleways are a level 350m (approx) stroll to your north. With excellent freeway access, and all that Shell Cove and Shellharbour village has to offer, this home is a unique opportunity to get a home in a vibrant community with so much so close by! Of course, being a torrens titled home, it's truly your own place, with no strata fees to worry about, ever!
