With its revitalised and versatile family-driven layout, this 5-bedroom home offers a sanctuary for those seeking a comfortable lifestyle with an astute focus on adaptable indoor-outdoor living. Its spacious and modern style is perfect for the growing family, with its magnificent location cementing it as a must-see home directly across from Crib Point Recreation Reserve, Crib Point pool and Tennis Club. A canopy of established trees opens to a timeless bay-windowed façade, with a mass of outdoor space ready for the lifestyle-loving family. Timber-look floors lead you into an elegant and inviting formal lounge, separate from an expansive family and dining area filled with natural light at the rear. A modern laminate kitchen overlooks the living space with a suite of sleek stainless-steel appliances, set to inspire your inner chef and make lavish gatherings an effortless breeze. The private terrace is equally sunbathed with the option of cover from its retractable awning, ideal for summer relaxation separate from its immense side yard. The retreat-like main bedroom offers a walk-in robe and an ensuite, with four more bedrooms providing space for the largest of clans around a central bathroom, toilet, and laundry. Finished with split system air conditioning, ducted heating, ceiling fans, privacy blinds, a water tank, a storage shed, and a double carport, it sits in a highly convenient pocket shrouded by nature and birdlife, located directly across from Crib Point Recreation Reserve, Crib Point pool and Tennis Club and within an easy walk to Crib Point Primary School, Woolleys Beach and Crib Point village shops.
