Welcome to this extraordinary triple-story townhouse in the sought-after Sandford neighborhood, boasting a generous 290 sqm of modern living space. This elegant home features a total of four bedrooms, ensuring comfort and privacy for families or those who enjoy hosting guests. Three of these bedrooms are master suites, each complete with its own luxurious ensuite and roomy built-in robes. In addition, there is a well-appointed fourth bedroom and a separate, stylishly designed bathroom to accommodate any additional needs. The harmonious blend of the three master bedrooms with their ensuites, the extra bedroom, and the additional bathroom in this home creates an atmosphere of both convenience and sophistication, catering to a variety of lifestyles and requirements. The sun-drenched living and dining area present the ideal setting for socializing or unwinding with loved ones, and are complemented by sliding doors that lead to not one, but two balconies. Savor the breathtaking views and crisp air while enjoying your morning coffee or basking in the sun. The townhouse's ground floor offers a versatile space that can serve as an extra bedroom or a professional environment such as an office, salon, or photography studio. This feature adds further functionality and value to this already remarkable home, with the potential to generate additional income or establish a dedicated workspace. Nestled amidst leafy pathways and charming green spaces perfect for children's play, this townhouse is truly a gem in its tranquil community. Additional noteworthy features include a remote-controlled lock-up garage with room for a second vehicle, as well as gas ducted heating and air conditioning, ensuring year-round comfort for residents. Seize this rare opportunity to own a truly exceptional home that offers a wealth of interior space and amenities tailored to any lifestyle.
