Built to exacting standards with high quality inclusions makes this Baranduda Townhouse a unique offering to the market. Features include 2 generous bedrooms with a superbly appointed ensuite and walk in robe to master while the second bedroom has the convenience of the main bathroom being located immediately adjacent. The addition of a small study provides a sanctuary for the busy person to isolate and attend to business or take in some quiet time. The large, superbly appointed island bench kitchen features an induction cooktop, 900mm under bench oven plus "Zip" instant boiling and chilled water system. The large living area features a unique pitched ceiling plus high quality laminate timber flooring and externally a small, secure courtyard provides an area to relax in the sun.
