This typical single level 80's home, has been extensively renovated with an eye for quality and thoughtfully designed with endless entertaining in mind. A medley of sophisticated finishes that promise a sense of calm, this dual living family haven is ready for you. Cleverly laid out around an internal courtyard that provides spades of light and terrific flow from one zone to another. The home comprises a formal lounge with fireplace through to a dining room and family room all overlooked by a family sized kitchen with a full suite of Bosch appliances (gas cooking) that's clad in resilient stone and glass. The all-weather courtyard is a perfect place to station yourself year round and opens wide onto a decked pergola and grassed yard to bask in the sun. The master bedroom with walk in robe and a tasteful ensuite is well separated from the rear bedroom wing which hosts two further robed bedrooms, a central bathroom with tub and a fitted laundry with yard access. Also features a double auto garage, storage sheds, ducted heating and cooling and plantation shutters. In a quaint family pocket that's an easy stroll to Liberty Ave Reserve together with its Kinder, Heany Park Primary School and walking trail. Also close to Stud Park shopping, bus routes, Kingston Golf and many other expansive parklands.
