The striking multi-level FULL BRICK design of this unique home is as relevant today as when it was originally architect designed, and it's been incredibly well-maintained since. Positioned to capture stunning north-easterly distant views and over the surrounding nature reserve, the property is nestled onto a spacious 658m² allotment in one of the sought after streets in Illawong and is convenient to a range of everyday amenities. This expansive residence offers a blissfully private retreat. It is presented in immaculate condition, yet leaving plenty of scope to upgrade and maximise further value.

KORE Features . A very attractive and solid full brick home with concrete flooring. High cathedral ceilings take full advantage of a bright north-easterly aspect . Larger than expected multiple living and dining areas. A sundrenched entertainer's terrace and elevated distant views. Four bedrooms each come with large built-ins and leafy outlooks. A very generous central kitchen overlooking a casual family space. Downstairs rumpus room, extra sitting area plus media/kids' play room. Level lawn private backyard, large double garage & ducted air-conditioning. Underhouse storeroom and workshop could be converted into living space . Presented in immaculate condition with scope to upgrade and value add.
