Located on a corner allotment this brick veneer family home offers the perfect starter for couples to commence their home ownership dream. Polished timber hardwood floors throughout are welcoming as you enter the home, and a recently renovated kitchen with quality appliances boasts ample storage and a bench space designed for preparing daily meals. Accommodating the family, you will find three bedrooms with built-in robes and serviced by a bathroom with shower, separate bath and vanity. The plan has a separate laundry which leads to a large area, once utilised as a garage and workshop now a designated rumpus. The backyard presents children with an enticing space to play, a separate garage from Brooke Street access plus additional shed. Carport from the North Caroline address. Situated in East Devonport and a short stroll venturing along beachside walkways this presents a great opportunity.
