Searching for that prime coastal location? This property has a lot to offer. Just about everyone wants to be living 'in town' and for good reason! Here's the perfect opportunity to do just that. Backing onto State Reserve, this property is ideal for those seeking to get into the Tathra property market with their first home, or a brilliant holiday home while you prepare to redevelop this fantastic block. Set on 765sqm with stunning views over the coastline and Kianinny Bay only a stone's throw away, it's hard not to be impressed. Tathra is famous for the Historic Hotel, golden beaches, mountain bike tracks and the estuary system. A number of cafes and clubs complement this sought-after location whilst being close enough to the regional centre of Bega with major shopping, medical facilities, sporting fields, schools, and opportunities for employment.
