HOME OPEN TUESDAY 9 APRIL - 4:45PM TO 5:00PM This charming two-bedroom, one-bathroom home is conveniently situated opposite the Robertson Park Tennis Centre, offering stunning city views for a leisurely game of tennis with friends. With its original character and close proximity to everyday amenities and the city itself, this delightful residence is sure to capture your heart. - A garden entry gate leads to the secure property, and the bull-nose front verandah provides the perfect spot to relax and take in the world around you. - The interior boasts classic features of yesteryear, including high ceilings, skirting boards, and decorative ceiling cornices and trimmings. - The solid wooden floorboards extend from the entrance hallway to the large master bedroom, which also features built-in wardrobes and a ceiling fan. - The residence also boasts a spacious open-plan lounge room and an adjacent dining and kitchen area with a ceiling fan, feature down lighting, modern stone bench tops, sleek white cabinetry, glass splashbacks, high-end electric cooking appliances, and a stainless-steel Euro dishwasher. - Property includes evaporative air conditioning, which emits improved air quality without drying out the atmosphere. - The cleverly-concealed European-style laundry is tucked away behind double doors, providing a practical and flowing floor plan. - The pitched patio-entertaining courtyard out back provides protection from the elements and connects to a secure remote-controlled side double carport accessible via Randell Lane. The location is unbeatable, with bus stops, Hyde Park, the Hyde Park Hotel, cafes, restaurants, entertainment hotspots, and sporting stadiums all within walking distance. The Perth CBD and freeway are just minutes away, making this the perfect home for those who want to live and work where the action is.
