This well-built David McCoy home is an ideal choice for a family seeking a comfortable and functional living space. Boasting a range of features, this property offers something for everyone. The three bedrooms are all equipped with air conditioning, ensuring a comfortable environment throughout the year. The recently renovated bathroom is in excellent condition, adding to the convenience and appeal of the home. The open plan living area is fitted with a large air-conditioner, creating a welcoming space for relaxation and entertainment. The newly upgraded kitchen is equipped with induction cook top providing a practical and efficient cooking environment. Additionally, the property includes a three-bay carport with ample space for vehicle storage and a designated area for boat storage. The bedrooms are fully air-conditioned and security screened, with some screens featuring fire escape capabilities for added safety. A large covered patio and living area offer an inviting space for outdoor gatherings and leisure activities. The property also features 6kw solar system and is wired for a generator, offering energy-efficient solutions and backup power options. Further adding to the appeal of this property is a 6 x 6m shed with power, providing additional storage and workspace options. Situated on an extra-large block of 923m², the property offers ample space for outdoor activities and potential additions such as a pool. The expansive outdoor area provides opportunities for family fun, from playing sports to enjoying recreational activities. Conveniently located at the end of a street that turns into a cul-de-sac, this home offers a sense of privacy and tranquility. Families will appreciate the proximity to St Andrews Catholic College (approx. 100 meters away) and Redlynch State College (approx. 60 meters primary), allowing for the kids to walk to either school. All in all, this beautifully presented home offers a combination of practicality, comfort, and potential for family enjoyment. Interested buyers are encouraged to visit the property with their family to experience firsthand the appeal and functionality it has to offer.
