This is where great mid-century style meets the art of Course-side living! Home to an artist and interior designer, this three bedroom, 1.5 bathroom 1960s home showcases a creative renovation designed to capitalise on north sun, fairway views and outlooks to artfully landscaped gardens. Oriented to the north with free-flowing formal and family zones inside, and two separate outdoor entertaining areas outside, this light-filled home shines with a skylit Bosch appliance kitchen, a state-of-the-art all-white bathroom (with its own soaring skylight), and a handy second WC in a well-appointed powder-room. Renovated with respect for the home's authentic detail with a glowing gas-fireplace in boldly-styled surrounds, and solid hardwood floors in pristine condition, this reverse-cycle air-conditioned home has fluted-glass detail echoed throughout, tall robes for each bedroom, block-out blinds above wide windows...and a widespread double carport stretched out along the streamlined façade. Beyond the gallery-like spaces and light-filled graces, the home's artful style extends to the great outdoors with bedrooms facing a very private landscape of autumn leaves and spring flowers, and walls of north-facing windows overlooking a similarly well-structured garden to the 'borrowed landscape' of the 16th Fairway of Metropolitan Golf Course. Located for family life in the absolute heart of the high-achieving South Oakleigh Primary School, this mid-century masterpiece has the Secondary College within 250m, buses all around, Oakleigh restaurants and station within easy reach, and Chadstone shopping and entertainment within minutes.
