This first class Ventura home has it all to offer and must be viewed to appreciate the pleasing aesthetic that is provided. The impressive street appeal, the soft tones of the neutral decor, the warm tones of the solid Marri timber floors and the manicured gardens all combine to present the complete package for the lucky new owner. Enter the home and be impressed by the flowing floor plan that will suit the needs of any family dynamic. You will enjoy a separate home theatre and an indulgent master bedroom with an ensuite equipped with double vanities and spa bath. At the heart of the home you have an open plan kitchen overlooking the family and dining room. The generous bedrooms complete this stand out property where first class presentation forms the common theme throughout. The quality of the interior is mirrored by the stunning outdoor area that provides an alfresco under the main roof with cafe blinds, additional entertaining areas are provided by chic designer shade sails to both sides of the home. This generous 628m block (approx) has the convenience of an access gate to take care of all your storage needs.
