This charming five bedroom two bathroom Californian Bungalow opposite Alphington Park boasts the exceptional living spaces that will entice a growing family to settle into riverside Alphington for the long term. With its fabulous Art Deco ceilings, leadlight windows and graceful proportions, this home features a sophisticated lounge with original open fireplace, fitted library/music room and expansive open plan living. The versatility of the living spaces perfectly suits the modern family. French doors open from the country style kitchen/living to an alfresco area set under a stunning Box Alder tree. All this makes for perfect summer entertaining. The accommodation is generous with privately zoned bedrooms, separate study, master with a WIR and secluded balcony. The two family bathrooms are bright and spacious along with a laundry featuring incredible storage. The list of features continues with mud and powder rooms, study alcove, heating/cooling, ceiling fans, garden shed, carport and plenty of off-street parking. Boasting a clever floorplan accommodating every stage of family living along with the first-class location of Yarra parklands, elite schools, Alphington Station and Fairfield Village, inspection will impress.
