Looking for privacy in the middle of town? Then this home secretly tucked behind a tall established front hedge is for you. This grand old lady is looking spritely with a new roof and gutters and new picture windows. Light, bright and airy, this comfortable home situated on a generous 2000 square allotment (approx.) with plenty of room for a large workmans' shed, just needs the finishing touches and is waiting for the new love of her life! The 3 bedrooms are all double size with built-in robes plus there is a massive family room which could easily be a 4th bedroom or even two, if need be. The kitchen has been upgraded and is compact but workable, and opens onto the generous main living room with combustion heater and reverse cycle split system air conditioner. The bathroom is already renovated and there is room adjacent the family room for a second bathroom with separate toilet which would complete the 'guest wing' of the home. The hard work is done, now just finish the renovation with your own personal wish list.....
