Nestled in the vibrant inner west, this original freestanding double-brick home exudes timeless charm and promises a lifestyle of convenience. Boasting its original Californian bungalow allure, the property sits on a sought-after R3 Medium Density zoned block, presenting an enticing opportunity for renovation, extension, or redevelopment, subject to council approval. Step inside to discover a residence adorned with original features, including ornate ceilings and warm timber floors. With three spacious double bedrooms, the main featuring a fireplace and verandah, this home offers ample space for comfortable living. The living room, complete with gas outlets and a fireplace, invites cozy gatherings, while a bright interior, illuminated by a skylight in the kitchen and dining area, seamlessly connects to the backyard, perfect for entertaining or relaxation. Convenience is key, with a well-appointed bathroom, carport, and secure side access enhancing practicality. Situated mere moments from Wareemba village, enjoy easy access to a plethora of amenities, including cafes, restaurants, supermarkets, and transport links. Nature enthusiasts will appreciate the proximity to Bayside parks, while families will benefit from nearby schools. In addition, the property offers swift access to the Abbotsford Point Rivercat, ideal for commuters or leisurely riverfront excursions.
