Rarely will you find a home with ideal separation that allows for separation and space. Throughout this brand new Torrens title home, you will find open plan living and comfort areas that you will enjoy and relax to. You will also find there are separate headquarters for teenage living like an upstairs rumpus, built-in study and even a front bedroom with two way ensuite. With its soaring high ceilings and light voids, its easy car surrounds and spacious internals – this home will suit the largest of families. Featuring a grand open plan kitchen with stone benchtops, European appliances plus walk-in pantry, covered entertaining area with beautiful westerly aspect, 3 full bathrooms, master bedroom with walk-in robe and own balcony, skylights throughout, study nook with built-in desk and storage, internal laundry plus under stair storage, auto garage + driveway parking for up to 2 more cars.
