$235,000

Introducing a gem of an investment, a charming period home already generating income with long-term tenants in place, paying $340 weekly. Nestled in a peaceful cul-de-sac, this property is not just a home, it's a wise investment with steady returns with immediate cash flow from the get-go with reliable, tenants already in place. This means no initial tenant search, no vacancy concerns, just a smooth transition to becoming a property investor. Situated directly across from the highly acclaimed North Public School, this property is exceptionally appealing for families. The house boasts four spacious bedrooms, split system air-conditioning and slow combustion wood fire, sweeping front veranda and secure backyard.
