This property is currently under contract. This is a rarity it's not your normal brick and tile home, this delightful home oozes charm and character! The sunken lounge is amazing with its featured rock fireplace and large mantle, add exposed rustic beams, brick walls, French doors, slate floors, and you could easily imagine you are in a Chateau in the South of France! The adjacent dining room is in the same decorative style with the added bonus of large windows to take in the acreage lifestyle. The kitchen is well fitted out with lots of cupboards, gas hotplates and French doors to outside. There are four bedrooms, two upstairs with the gorgeous attic windows and two downstairs, there is also a bathroom on each floor. Upstairs is another spacious lounge room. Whatever the outside temperature is you will be well taken care of with a reverse cycle air conditioner or start up a roaring fire with the added bonus of a smoker on the 2nd floor! There are covered front and back verandas and an inground salt pool for the family to enjoy. The land - 6.3 acres is flat and has a large dam and summer creek running along the back of the house. This is a blank canvas, plenty of room to build a large shed or make your own horse or hobby farm. Reason for sale: downsizing the land Rainwater only and a septic sewerage system Electric hot water system Logan City Council rates are approx. $520 per quarter NO solar power in place Closest town and schools are Jimboomba (4.9klms) Commute to Brisbane CBD (52.9klms) Commute to Gold Coast (64klms)
