A true haven for those seeking a luxurious coastal lifestyle, this beautifully presented and completely private three-bedroom home boasts thoughtful amenity for down-sizers, couples or holiday-makers. Set beachside with an off-street position, an unfolding of premium finishes and high-end inclusions makes this brick home an unparalleled opportunity. Cocooned within commercial aluminium windows and doors, elevated ceiling heights and solid timber floors, the fluid layout reveals modern interiors where the luxury of an open plan entertaining hub comfortably accommodates weekend hosting or cosy nights in. Inspiring light-hearted living with an all-Westinghouse kitchen complete with filtered water tap and stone benchtops, the family domain comes complete with a large living and dining zone, and a sensational deck alfresco with manually-operated slide-track shade blinds. Serving both guests and family, a large main bathroom with master bedroom access sits central to the three bedrooms, where solid timber floors continue throughout. Block-out roller blinds, split-system heating and cooling, elevated internal door heights, brass hardware (internal doors only), a double garage and rear double gate access to the laneway beyond, all headline the features of this sensationally-placed home. Set only a moment's walk from Rosebud Pier and Foreshore Playground, Rosebud Shopping Precinct, and Rosebud Beach.
