This near new 3-bedroom townhouse offers a sophisticated and contemporary living experience, combining luxury with low-maintenance convenience. The property spans two levels, with the lower level featuring the second and third bedrooms, a bright second living space, a well-appointed laundry with ample cabinetry, and a family bathroom. The upper level reveals an impressive kitchen, dining, and living area, complete with high-quality appliances and stylish stone benchtops. The adjoining spacious balcony boasts scenic water views, creating an ideal space for entertaining. The master bedroom is equipped with a walk-in wardrobe and a generous en-suite with stone bench tops. Notable features of this property include a separate study, zoned ducted heating and cooling, engineered timber floorboards, double glazing throughout for enhanced energy efficiency, a striking timber and glass staircase, elegant window furnishings, and top-notch fixtures and fittings. The double lock-up garage ensures secure parking, and the landscaped surroundings add to the overall appeal. Perfectly located in the sought-after area of Torquay, the townhouse is just steps away from the Deep Creek walking track with an easy stroll to the beach and conveniently close to cafes, restaurants, supermarkets, and shopping amenities. Whether you're seeking a permanent residence or a coastal getaway, this townhouse offers a perfect blend of style, comfort, and proximity to amenities. Call today to schedule your inspection.
