Conveniently situated between the major roads of Bridge, Wright, Montague and Walkley, this popular residential area of Ingle Farm is an established residential suburb situated 15 radial kilometres north-east of the Adelaide CBD. Shopping, recreational and educational facilities are available within a 2km radius. Public bus services operate along those major thoroughfares. Surrounding properties comprise similar aged properties, with an increasing number of newly developed houses. With a land area of 657 square metres (frontage of 21.59m) and a zoning of 'General Neighbourhood', the opportunity of land division exists (subject to council consent). So, you have the choice of making this house your home, of using it as an investment property or redeveloping. The choice is yours!
