

33 Boyle Street, Cremorne, NSW 2090

DAVID MURPHY.

Sold House

Tuesday, 19 September 2023

33 Boyle Street, Cremorne, NSW 2090

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

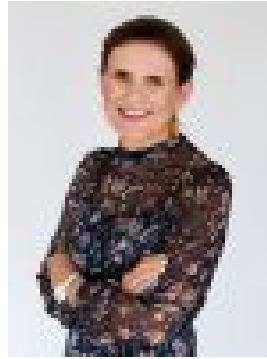

Parkings: 1

Area: 407 m2

Type: House

David Murphy
0425312481

Bindi Codrington
0439458679

Contact agent

Situated just footsteps from Sydney Harbour's breathtaking foreshore, with the popular Cremorne Point walk and McCallum Seawater Pool, this grand arts and crafts residence showcases timeless architecture and features that are quintessential to the period. The floor plan is defined throughout by a variety of formal and informal spaces, presenting soaring vaulted ceilings, leadlight windows and detailed craftsmanship at every turn. This is a rare offering, and the opportunity of an enviable lifestyle in a tightly held harbourside enclave. Features include: Breathtaking formal living and dining rooms adorned with original leadlight windows High ornate ceiling, vaulted ceiling in dining room Parquet and hardwood flooring throughout Impressive views from upper level of city and the harbour Versatile floorplan with large bedrooms and multiple living zones Pristine main bathroom with claw-footed bath Established landscaped gardens, private French courtyard at rear Off-street parking, short stroll to ferry and Cremorne Point Reserve A stunning period home with unlimited potential