This amazing allotment is very unassuming from the kerb side however once you begin up the drive you are soon blessed with amazing views. This 1263 sqm allotment is close to transport, shops and beach only being a few minutes walk away. Park your car and walk the tracks around the seaside village of Coles Bay. This allotment comes with plans already drawn that have been submitted to council, and an approved Development Application, so all you have to do is choose the colour scheme for your new home.
