Boasting a wide frontage, commanding presence and beautiful gardens, this fully renovated home presents blissful family living. Resting in an elevated position on a quiet cul-de-sac with a northern rear aspect and Tillack Park right down the road, every element of this property ensures a sensational suburban lifestyle. Showcasing sturdy brick construction, the three-level house offers exceptional space and an extraordinary transformation to elevate your living experience. Gorgeous new fixtures and finishes adorn the interiors, and the manicured greenery generates a magnificent sense of calm. Make your way inside the alluring living and dining rooms, which display gleaming timber floors and a selection of French and bi-fold doors. Moving through the floor plan, the glass cellar is perfect for housing your wine collection, and the high-end kitchen, with its stunning stone benchtops, sleek integrated cabinetry, and premium appliances, is destined for spectacular meals. Extending the living and entertaining options, a large wraparound deck flows off the living zones alongside a private patio and outdoor kitchen. Here, you can wine and dine guests from day to night and unwind as children play across the rolling lawns. Four bedrooms occupy the upper floor, a double garage is positioned downstairs, and the house features a study, three luxurious bathrooms, and air-conditioning throughout. Positioned in a family-friendly cul-de-sac, kids can walk to Tillack Park at the end of the road, and parents can enjoy golf at Pacific Golf Club, which is only 600m away. Just 570m from Metropal Shopping Centre and 2.1km from Westfield Carindale, buyers can access shopping, dining, groceries and Event Cinemas with ease. Located 20 minutes from the CBD and on the doorstep of transport and top schools, you will love the proximity to bus stops, Gateway Motorway, Brisbane Adventist, Citipointe College, and Cavendish Road State High School.
