

33 Harnett Street, Boronia, Vic 3155

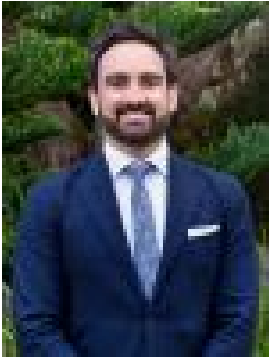

Sold Residential Land

Saturday, 24 February 2024

33 Harnett Street, Boronia, Vic 3155

Area: 1870 m2

Type: Residential Land

Ben Thomas
0422273826

Sarah McGlone
0422273826

$340,000

Showcasing a vacant land opportunity nestled on the outskirts of the breathtaking One Tree Hill in Dandenong Ranges National Park. With an expansive 1800+sqm (approx.) allotment, this untouched canvas offers boundless possibilities for those seeking to create their own sanctuary. Wake up to the serene tranquillity of the bush while still being a stone's throw away from the vibrant heart of the City of Knox. This prime location not only provides the perfect blend of nature and convenience but also offers a rare chance to build your dream home amidst the picturesque landscape. The property offers the potential for distant views of Port Phillip Bay, setting the stage for a lifestyle of natural beauty. With its elevated perspective, this land not only promises stunning views of the surrounding area but also presents endless design opportunities to mirror your aspirations. Close proximity to local amenities including shopping precincts, cafes, restaurants, and schools ensures that your new sanctuary will be both secluded and accessible. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to make your mark on one of the last remaining parcels of land in the area. On Site Auction Saturday 9th of March at 3pm