Overlooking Simpson Park, this well presented two level Victorian terrace is perfectly positioned and offers great access to and from the city as well as the area's top attractions including Newtown's famous King Street and Sydney Park, whilst being just a stone's throw to St. Peters train station, buses and Marrickville Metro Shopping Centre. The property: * Three generously sized bedrooms, each with built in robes * Two bedrooms on first floor, one upon entry to the home * Main bedroom with sunroom overlooking park * Combined living and dining leads to eat in gas kitchen * Large bathroom with tub combined with internal laundry * Timber floors throughout * Low maintenance rear courtyard * Secure lock up garage accessed via rear lane

The details: * Available From 16th May 2024 * 12 month lease term

The neighbourhood: A post-industrial playground, St Peters is an inner-west gem that has officially come into its own. It is the ultimate in city-fringe living, home to eat streets, shopping strips, new developments, sprawling parks and one of Sydney's most thriving creative precincts. The iconic chimneys perched at the edge of Sydney Park point to its industrial past, but St Peters is focused on the future. (Source - sitchu.com.au)
