Here is an opportunity to build your dream coast house in the popular village of Potato Point. The secret is out and this fantastic beachside hamlet has been discovered! This block is one of just a small handful of vacant parcels left and with Potato Point being surrounded by National Park there is no room to make more blocks like this, once they are gone, they are gone. No time limit to build, mains electricity, town water, phone line and sewer available. This 765 sqm block is just a hop skip and a jump from 2 beaches. Get in quick to secure your summer escape.
